Standard 5 - Each learner is properly informed and protected

5.2. Prior to enrolment or the commencement of training and assessment, whichever comes first, the RTO provides, in print or through referral to an electronic copy, current and accurate information that enables the learner to make informed decisions about undertaking training with the RTO and at a minimum includes the following content:

- b) the training and assessment, and related educational and support services the RTO will provide to the learner including the:
 - iv) name and contact details of any third party that will provide training and/or assessment, and related educational and support services to the learner on the RTO's behalf;
- e) the learner's obligations:
 - ii) any requirements the RTO requires the learner to meet to enter and successfully complete their chosen training product;

Requirement	An RTO must provide clear information to prospective learners prior to enrolment or commencement of training or assessment activities, to enable them to decide if the RTO and course is suitable for them, taking into account their existing skills and knowledge and any specific needs. RTOs must provide equitable access to all required educational and support services, so that no learner is disadvantaged regardless of their mode of study or location. They must make any limitations regarding access to these resources clear in their pre-enrolment information so clients and learners can make an informed choice about which RTO and course of study best meets their needs. The needs of learners are considered in the assessment process and reasonable adjustments are made to accommodate the learner. However the rigour of the assessment process must not be compromised.
